

The Memphis/Mid-South Chapter of the Federal Bar Association
Presents the
FEDERAL PRACTICE SEMINAR

Thursday, October 14, 2004
8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

The Cannon Center
Memphis Cook Convention Center

REGISTRATION DEADLINE IS OCTOBER 8

- |                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|--------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00 - 8:30 a.m.   | Registration &amp; Continental Breakfast                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 8:30 - 9:00 a.m.   | Welcoming Remarks                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 9:00 - 10:00 a.m.  | Employment Law - “Recent Developments in Employment Law”Fred Lewis, Lewis, Fisher, Henderson, Claxton & Mulroy, LLPDon Donati, Donati Law Firm, LLP                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 10:00 - 10:15 a.m. | Break                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 10:15 - 11:15 a.m. | Procedural Issues - “Rules and Ghouls, Wheels and Deals”(Past, Present and Proposed Changes in the Rules of Procedure)District Judge J. Daniel BreenMagistrate Judge Diane K. VescovoJohn Heflin, Bourland, Heflin, Alvarez & Minor, PLLC                                                                                    |
| 11:15 - 12:15 a.m. | Ethical Issues - “Hollywood on Trial - Ethics in the Movies”Michael G. McLaren, Black, McLaren, Jones, & Ryland, P.C.                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 12:15 - 1:15 p.m.  | Lunch - Included                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1:15 - 2:15 p.m.   | Intellectual Property - “Napster, Aimster, Grokster and TivoToGo - The Technology Wars Continue”Craig A. Grossman, Professor, University of Memphis School of Law                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 2:15 - 3:15 p.m.   | Break-out sessionsCivil - “Jury Selection and Practical Issues Concerning Discovery”Magistrate Judge S. Thomas AndersonRobert E. Craddock, Wyatt, Tarant & Combs, LLPCriminal - “The Ethics of Civility in a Criminal Practice”District Judge James D. ToddSteve Farese, Farese, Farese & Farese, P.A. |
| 3:15 - 3:30 p.m.   | Break                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

3:30 - 4:15 p.m.      Break-out sessions
Civil - “Recent Developments in Civil Procedure”
District Judge Bernice B. Donald
Criminal - “Recent Developments in Criminal Law and Procedure”
District Judge James D. Todd

4:15 - 5:00 p.m.      Judges’ Panel
District Judge Samuel H. Mays
District Judge Jon P. McCalla
Magistrate Judge Tu M. Pham

5:00 p.m.      Attorney Admissions Ceremony. Any attorney seeking admissions to the federal bar will find an application at the Court’s website, www.tnwd.uscourts.gov. Both the application and the $150 admission fee must be received in the Clerk’s Office in advance of the ceremony in order for an applicant to obtain an admissions certificate at the conclusion of the ceremony.

-----
(Reservation Form)
Price: Federal Bar Association Members      ☐ $ 90
Others      ☐ $120

Name:-----BPR#-----

Address:-----

City/State/Zip-----Phone:-----

VISA ☐    MasterCard ☐    Check Enclosed ☐

Credit Card#-----Exp. Date:-----

Cardholder Signature:-----

Please send reservation with payment to:

John M. Russell
LAWRENCE & RUSSELL, LLP
5050 Poplar Avenue, Suite 1717
Memphis, Tennessee 38157
Phone: 901.844.4433
Fax: 901.844.4435